

I am active in the Amateur Radio Service as KC9BQI and formerly object to the proposed use of the installed base of power lines by internet service providers. There is sufficient evidence that such use will cause harmful interference on the referenced HF and UHF bands.